

Law Journal Library

Academic journals provide a wealth of information regarding law and law-related issues, as well as in-depth analyses of important legal decisions. Unlike other online databases, HeinOnline's Law Journal Library is comprehensive, beginning with the first issue ever published of more than 2,400 law and law-related periodicals. With more than 26 million pages of articles, comments, notes, book reviews, cases, decisions, and legislation, HeinOnline's Law Journal Library will bridge your gap in legal history!

The Law Journal Library contains legal periodicals covering more than 90 subject areas which are published in twenty-nine different countries, as well as all fifty U.S. states and the District of Columbia. One of the most advantageous features of HeinOnline is that it is an image-based database, which means it provides exact page images as they originally appear in hardcopy. Therefore, all charts, graphs, photographs and footnotes appear where they belong!

With a variety of searching options and the integration of Hein's ScholarCheck, this library is a welcome addition in any academic setting!

Includes more than 2,400 law
and law-related periodicals from inception!

SEARCHING OPTIONS TO QUICKLY FIND DOCUMENTS

The screenshot shows the search interface for the Law Journal Library. It includes a search bar with a dropdown menu set to 'Text'. Below the search bar are fields for 'Article Title' and 'Author/Creator', each with a dropdown menu and an 'Add field' button. A 'Subject' section features a list of subject categories such as 'Accounting', 'Administrative Law', and 'Admiralty'. There is also a 'Select Titles' section with a list of titles like 'A. Fem LJ', 'A. Bul.', and 'A. S. I. L. Proc.'. At the bottom, there are date range fields ('Date: (YYYY) To: (YYYY)'), a 'Sort by:' dropdown, and a 'Section Types To Search:' section with checkboxes for various document types like 'Articles', 'Legislation', 'Index', 'Comments', 'Cases', 'Editorial', 'Notes', 'Decisions', 'Reviews', and 'Miscellaneous'. There are also checkboxes for 'Include external articles' and 'Include periodical results from other HeinOnline Collections'.

Various Meta-data Fields to Search: Search across the full text by title, author, description, state, country, or date.

Search by Date & Choose Sort-by Method: Narrow to a range of years and sort results by various parameters.

Boolean Operators: Use boolean operators to connect search terms (AND, OR, NOT).

Search by Subject: Narrow your search to one or more subject areas.

Search by Title: Narrow to one or more titles.

Search Specific Section Types: Select to search articles, comments, notes, reviews, legislation, cases, decisions, etc.

Include External Articles: Includes links to law review articles that do not reside inside the HeinOnline database.

Include Results from Other HeinOnline Collections: Search across journals from other HeinOnline libraries within the Law Journal Library.

QUICKLY ACCESS A DOCUMENT USING THE BLUEBOOK CITATION

Simply insert the volume, blue book abbreviation and page number, or copy and past a cite from another source. Not sure if the blue book abbreviation is accurate? Use the "Find a Blue Book Citation" option and we'll provide the blue book citation for you after you select the title.

The screenshot shows the 'Citation Navigator' tool. It has a table with columns for 'Vol.', 'Abbreviation', and 'Page'. Below the table are two input fields for 'Vol.', 'Abbreviation', and 'Page', each with an 'open in new tab/window' checkbox. There are two 'Get Citation' buttons. Below the input fields is a section titled 'Type or Copy and Paste Citation Here:' with another input field and an 'open in new tab/window' checkbox, followed by another 'Get Citation' button. At the bottom, there is a link: 'Click Here for Classic Citation Navigator'.

NEW! Quickly cite title thanks to new citation feature!

To access other citations for the title you are looking at, simply click "cite" next to the Table of Contents at the top of the page.

See Amgen Inc. v. Conn. Gen. Ins. Fund, 133 S. Ct. 1184, 1201 (2013). At oral argument, Justice Kagan articulated the relevance of congressional acquiescence: in order to reverse a case, there must be something "fundamentally different" today than when the case was decided, and that is "especially so . . . where Congress has had every opportunity, and has declined every opportunity, to change Basic." Transcript of Oral Argument, supra note 62, at 5.

Have you heard about the HeinOnline Hat Trick?

Locate the most relevant & accurate titles for your research

When viewing search results in the Law Journal Library, you will see the number of times the articles has been cited by other articles in the Law Journal Library, the number of cases* citing that article, and the number of times the article has been accessed over the past 12 months in HeinOnline. HeinOnline contains the historical articles that are heavily cited by court cases not available in any other databases. This analysis of the entire history of law reviews ensures you are reading and accessing the most relevant and accurate articles determined by scholars, courts, and the legal community.

*To access the number of cases citing an article, you must have Fastcase Premium or HeinOnline/Fastcase Synchronization. Learn more at home.heinonline.org/caselaw.
