

State Attorney General Reports and Opinions

ALL STATES
AVAILABLE
BACK TO INCEPTION!

State Attorney General Reports and Opinions constitute, for each state, an integral element in its framework of governing law, and have the characteristics of both primary and secondary authority. This collection includes access to the AG reports and opinions for all fifty states as well as Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

About the Reports

As the legal advisor to the executive officials of the government, the Attorney General renders requested legal advice, generally in the form of written opinions. Although these opinions are the official statements of an executive officer, issued in accordance with this authority, they are merely advisory statements and not mandatory orders. However, the opinions carry considerable weight, are strongly persuasive, and are generally followed by executive officers. In addition, they have significant influence on the courts in their deliberation.

Searching:

State Attorney General Reports and Opinions features full-text searching, as well as the ability to search by opinion number. You will also be able to browse and search by state and year.

For example, let's search for the case Ginsberg v. New York. The citation for this case is 390 U.S. 629. We are also going to limit the results between the years 1968 to 1974. To perform this search inside State Attorney General Reports and Opinions, select the Advanced Search option at the top of the page. In the Text field, type "390 U.S. 629." Next enter the date range 1968 to 1974. As you can see from step 2, this search retrieved 10 results. Select the result that is most relevant to your research and HeinOnline will display the PDF.

The screenshot shows the HeinOnline search interface. At the top, there are tabs for 'Full Text', 'Citation', 'Catalog', and 'Case Law'. Below these is a search bar with the text '390 U.S. 629' entered. The search is performed using the 'Advanced Search' option. The search criteria are: Text: '390 U.S. 629', Opinion: (blank), and Date: 1968 to 1974. The search results show 10 items, with the first result being '1973 New Mexico Attorney General Reports and Opinions 110 (1973)'. The selected result is displayed in a larger view, showing the report title 'REPORT OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL' and the text of the opinion.

Searching for an opinion number is also very simple.

For example, let's search for the Georgia Attorney General, opinion number 76-76. To perform this search, select the Advanced Search option at the top of the page. In the Opinion field, type "76-76." As you can see from step 2, this search retrieved two results. Select the one that is most relevant to your research and HeinOnline will display the PDF.

The screenshot shows the HeinOnline search interface. The search criteria are: Opinion: '76-76'. The search results show 2 items, with the first result being '1976 Georgia Attorney General Reports and Opinions 132 (1976)'. The selected result is displayed in a larger view, showing the report title 'OPINION 76-76' and the text of the opinion.
