

State Reports: A Historical Archive

More than 11.5 million pages of historical state reports & growing!

Numbers indicate geographic boundaries of United States Courts of Appeals and United States District Courts.

State Reports: A Historical Archive provides a digital version of Hein's State Reports Checklist along with linking to the full text of historical state reports. Hein's State Report Checklist provides researchers with a convenient state-by-state bibliographic guide to published court reports and how they interrelate with the National Reporter System. Information has been collected from William S. Hein & Co., Inc.'s extensive records gathered over many years and sent to the State Law Library and/or a major university law library within each state for verification and expansion. The revised information was then checked against several other reference sources resulting in the most detailed and updated state report checklist currently available.

In total, the database links to more than 600 titles and more than 15,600 volumes of full-text documents. A convenient map tool provides users the ability to quickly access the report index and links to available volumes by state.
