HeinOnline’s World Trials collection contains more than 4,200 titles and 1.7 million pages of not only trial transcripts and other critical court documents, but also trial-related resources such as monographs which analyze and debate the decisions of famous trials. It also includes biographies of many of the greatest trial lawyers in history. This collection delivers previously hard-to-obtain historical content to the desktops of researchers worldwide.

Famous works included:
- John Lawson’s “American State Trials”
- Howell’s State Trials
- Law Reports of Trials of War Criminals
- Reports of State Trials
- Sixty Famous Cases

“I consider trial by jury as the only anchor ever yet imagined by man, by which government can be held to the principles of its constitution.” - Thomas Jefferson, 1789

A Cooperative Effort from Libraries and Friends Worldwide

With special cooperation from HeinOnline subscribers such as Cornell Law Library, Jenkins Law Library and the University of Missouri-Columbia Law Library as well as several antiquarian book sellers, HeinOnline's World Trials collection rivals the holdings of many prestigious research libraries around the globe. It is our hope that even more libraries will join our ongoing effort to provide greater access to previously unattainable trials and trials-related works.

Digital Ownership Available
