RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

This compilation of separately published pamphlets of the Rules of the Supreme Court of the United States includes one copy of every pamphlet in the Library of the U.S. Supreme Court. No bibliography including any separately published Rules pamphlets has been located. Thus, this compilation is probably not complete, especially for the early years.

A bibliography of the forty-two pamphlets scanned follows. Please note that the Supreme Court rarely publishes a "new edition" of the Rules if only one or two rule changes are made. Typically, the Supreme Court would issue a rule change in an order which would then be slipped into the most recent pamphlet available. Therefore, the scholar or historian who is trying to trace a particular rule will be wise to use the pamphlets listed here along with the attached list of all rule changes as published in United States Reports. Anne Amstutz, Supreme Court Library, compiled this second list.
