

American Law Institute Library

The American Law Institute is the leading independent organization in the United States producing scholarly work to clarify, modernize, and otherwise improve the law. The Institute is made up of lawyers, judges, and law professors of the highest qualifications. It drafts, discusses, revises, and publishes Restatements of the Law, model statutes, and principles of law that enormously influential in the courts and legislatures, as well as in legal scholarship and education. ALI has long been influential internationally and, in recent years, more of its work has become international in scope.

The American Law Institute Library in HeinOnline opens new doors in legal research. It provides easy access to invaluable projects and documents that have influenced modern law and society.

The American Law Institute Library includes:

- Restatements & Principles of the Law
- Uniform Commercial Code
- ALI Annual Reports
- Proceedings of ALI Annual Meetings
- ALI Reporter
- Model Penal Codes
- ALI-CLE Publications
- Scholarly Articles
- And more!

"This is the most prestigious legal group in the United States. The American Law Institute is the leading institution in forming written expression of legal principles that have evolved in many areas of the law."

*- Justice Sandra Day O'Connor
ALI Annual Meeting, May 2002*

HeinOnline's American Law Institute Library consists of:

RESTATEMENTS OF THE LAW - INCLUDES CURRENT RESTATEMENTS!

Restatements are essentially codifications of common law judge-made doctrines that develop gradually over time because of the principle of stare decisis. Although Restatements are not binding authority in and of themselves, they are highly persuasive because they are formulated over several years with extensive input from law professors, practicing attorneys, and judges. The Restatements of the Law is one of the most respected and well-used sources of secondary authority, covering nearly every area of common law. We have reordered this subcollection to be listed by category. Each category includes a more information link along with a description of the agency.

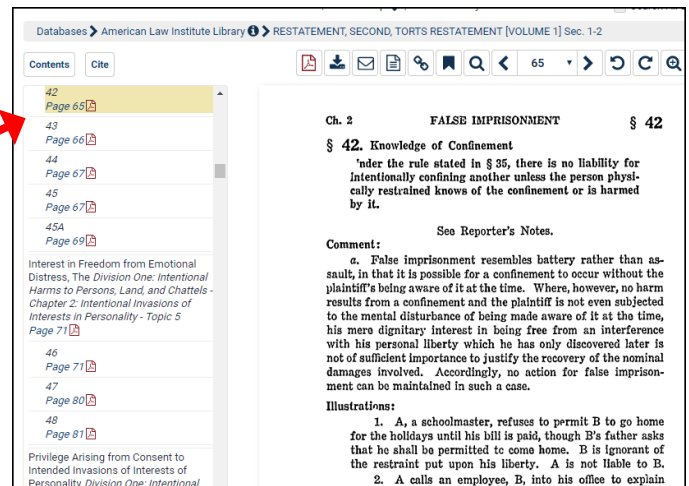

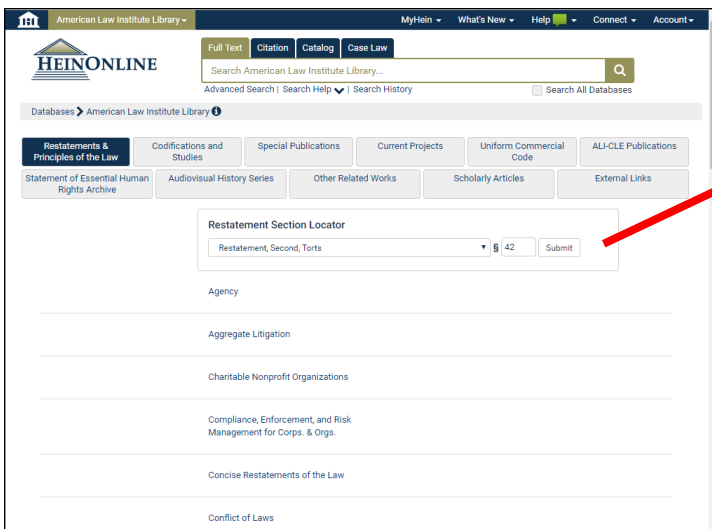

HeinOnline coverage includes: Restatements of the Law Index, Agency, Business Associations, Conflict of Laws, Contracts, Economic Torts and Related Wrongs, Employment Law, Foreign Relations Law of the United States, Judgments, The Law Governing Lawyers, Property, Property: Landlord and Tenant, Property: Donative Transfers, Property: Wills and other Donative Transfers, Property: Servitudes, Property: Mortgages, Property: Joint Ownership, Restatement in the Courts, Restitution, Restitution and Unjust Enrichment, Sales of Land, Security, Suretyship and Guaranty, Torts, Trusts, Unfair Competition, and more!

Tentative Drafts and Proposed Final Drafts are included in this database upon their publication. Once approved by the Council and by the ALI membership at an Annual Meeting, Tentative Drafts and Proposed Final Drafts represent the most current statement of ALI's position on a subject and may be cited in opinions or briefs in accordance with Bluebook rule 12.9.4 until the official text is published.

The material in Preliminary Drafts and Council Drafts is subject to significant change during the project development process. Thus, these Drafts are not included in this database until six months following the completion of a project, when they are made available by ALI for archival purposes only.

RESTATEMENT SECTION LOCATOR TOOL

The Restatement Section Locator Tool can be found on the American Law Institute Library homepage. To use this tool, choose the Restatement name from the drop-down menu and enter the section number. Users are then directed to the page on which the section begins.

The Greatest ALI Collection of All Time!

PRINCIPLES OF THE LAW

Just as the ALI's Restatements of the Law contain clear formulations of common law and its statutory elements or variations, reflect the law as it presently stands or might plausibly be stated by a court, the ALI's Principles of the Law analyze legal areas thought to be in need of reform. Principles aim to express the law as it should be. Like Restatements, Principles publications use the familiar black-letter statements of recommended legal rules, supports by Comments, Illustrations, and Reporter's Notes.

UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

The UCC is a comprehensive code addressing most aspects of commercial law, and is generally viewed as one of the most important developments in American law; it has been enacted (with some local variations) in 49 states and in the District of Columbia and the Virgin Islands, as well as partially in Louisiana. HeinOnline includes UCC Drafts from 1944 through current, including the 1962 Official Text with Comments.

ALI ANNUAL REPORTS

The Reports contain information about the Institute's organization, leadership, and current projects. They also include the Reports of the Institute's Director and Treasurer. Annexes to the Reports provide information on published case citations to Restatements of the Law and to ALI codifications and studies. Coverage in HeinOnline begins with the 15th Annual Meeting in 1937.

PROCEEDINGS OF ALI ANNUAL MEETINGS

These volumes are edited transcripts of ALI Annual Meetings. They are published about once a year after a particular meeting. Coverage in HeinOnline begins from 1923.

ALI ANNUAL MEETING SPEECHES

Coverage in HeinOnline contains speeches from 1923 through current.

MISCELLANEOUS PUBLICATIONS

HeinOnline's ALI Collection includes publications such as: ALI's 50th and 75th Anniversary Volumes, The Preparation of ALI Drafts: Directions for Reporters, Report of the Special Committee on Future Program, Minutes in Remembrance from 1925-1997, and several other miscellaneous documents.

THE ALI REPORTER

The Institutes quarterly newsletter contains the latest information about ALI projects, meetings and members. Coverage in HeinOnline contains the newsletter's 1st volume in 1978.

"STATEMENT OF ESSENTIAL HUMAN RIGHTS" ARCHIVE

A pioneering ALI project of the mid 1940's, "Statement of Essential Human Rights" is the Institutes contribution to post-war problems. For years it has been stored in the dark archives, never before available in digital format!

The ALI's effort to create a "Statement of Essential Human Rights" was a consequence of the tumultuous times faced by all during World War II. The Committee of Advisors tasked with creating and editing a draft of the Statement were unable to agree upon which human rights were indeed necessary and essential. Therefore, the Institute's involvement with the Statement of Essential Human Rights ceased and it was never released to the Institute's membership.

MODEL PENAL CODE

The purpose of the Model Penal Code was to stimulate and assist legislatures in making a major effort to appraise the content of the penal law by a contemporary reasoned judgment the prohibitions it lays down, the excuses it admits, the sanctions it employs, and the range of the authority that it distributes and confers. Since its promulgation, the Code has played an important part in the widespread revision and codification of the substantive criminal law of the United States. HeinOnline includes the original Proposal to Prepare a Model Penal Code, Discussion, Council, Preliminary, and Tentative Drafts, as well as other Miscellaneous Documents related to the Code starting with 1951.

ALI-CLE PERIODICALS

ALI-ABA has been a leader in continuing professional education in the United States for nearly 60 years. In 1947, the American Bar Association asked the American Law Institute to develop the first national program of post-admission legal education, which eventually led to the creation of ALI-CLE.

ALI-ABA publishes several legal magazines to help keep professionals current in every area of the law. HeinOnline includes the following periodicals: ALI-ABA Estate Planning Course Materials Journal, The CLE Journal, The Practical Lawyer, The Practical Litigator, The Practical Real Estate Lawyer, and the Practical Tax Lawyer.

American Law Institute

Case Law Linking Available: Links to Current Case Law

Case Law Linking is found and accessible throughout HeinOnline's American Law Institute Library. Case Law citations will be highlighted in blue and will link to the full text of the case powered by Fastcase.

Fastcase is a leading next generation-legal research service that features powerful "best-case-first" tools that make research faster than ever. Hein provides federal and state case law powered by Fastcase via inline hyperlinks and citation look up.

You can Case Law Linking in:

- Restatements of the Law
- Principles of the Law
- The Practical Litigator
- Practical Real Estate Lawyer
- And more!

d. Death of individual principal.
For representative statements of the basic proposition that the principal's death terminates an agent's authority, see, e.g., United States v. Chin, 848 F.2d 55, 57 \(4th Cir.1988\) (holding that lawyer who represented decedent did not have standing to move to abate decedent's criminal conviction); Smith v. H.C. Bailey Cos., 477 So. 2d 224, 235 \(Miss.1985\) (death of owner of property instantaneously re-

"When, finally, it goes out under the name and with the sanction of the Institute, after all this testing and retesting, it will be something less than a code and something more than a treatise. It will be invested with unique authority, not to command, but to persuade. Universities and bench and bar will have had a part in its creation. I have great faith in the power of such a restatement to unify our law."

- Benjamin Cardozo, 1923

Catalog Records

Through a special arrangement with William S. Hein & Co., Inc. and Cassidy Cataloguing Records, a complimentary archive file of the MARC Records for the American Law Institute Library is available. Subscribers must commit to an annual $50 maintenance fee, which begins with the initial load of the archive file.

This does not include customization of your MARC records, which is available through Cassidy for an additional fee. If you would like to receive the American Law Institute Library MARC Records through this program, please fill out this form and a representative will contact you with further details.

For more information like details and pricing for Cassidy Cataloguing, please contact info@cassidycat.com or (973) 586-3200.

William S. Hein & Co., Inc. & HeinOnline
2350 N. Forest Rd. Getzville, NY 14068
Ph: 716-882-2600 • Toll Free: 800-828-7571 • International: +1 716 882 2600 • Fax: 716-883-8100 marketing@wshein.com • heinonline.org • www.wshein.com