

FEATURES & ENHANCEMENTS

NEW AND COMING SOON

OVERVIEW

We have new features and enhancements to share, with some on the horizon. Here's a brief overview of what we'll cover:

What's New:

- Altmetric
- MyHein: Liking & Commenting
- CSV Download Options
- Enhanced Faceting
- View/Modify IP Addresses

Coming Soon:

- New Landing Page
- Scholarly Impact Rankings

WHAT'S NEW

ALTMETRIC

- Altmetric is part of Digital Science, an AI-focused technology company that tracks where published research is mentioned online
- Altmetric is a free integration with HeinOnline
- It follows online attention across news outlets, websites, blogs, social media, and more, tracking thousands of online conversations to uncover the societal impact of scholarly works
- An Altmetric donut badge will only appear in HeinOnline if an article includes a Digital Object Identifier, also known as a DOI, and at least 1 metric from an outside online source
- Badges are updated daily

Outside sources include:

- Public policy documents
- Online reference managers
- Social media (Facebook, X, etc.)
- Wikipedia
- Citations
- Mainstream media
- Post-publication peer-review platforms
- Patents (data from IDI Claims)
- Academic and non-academic blogs
- Research highlights
- Multimedia and other online platforms (YouTube, Reddit, etc.)

A screenshot of a tweet from Dr. Ryan Coles (@rcoles0007) on a dark background. The tweet text is: "Bring back the Covid era child tax credit. #poverty #Research #inequality". Below the text is a quote tweet from Social Forces (@SF_Journal) dated Apr 9. The quote text reads: "This paper examines how intra-year work-hour volatility is related to child poverty. Findings: in-kind benefits are more effective in buffering household income declines resulting from unstable work hours, followed by tax transfers and cash benefits." Below the quote is a "Show more" link. Underneath the quote is a white box containing the journal article information: "JOURNAL ARTICLE", "Work Hours Volatility and Child Poverty: The Potential Mitigating Role of Safety Net Programs", "Get access >", "Julie Cai ✉", "Social Forces, Volume 102, Issue 3, March 2024, Pages 902-925, https://doi.org/10.1093/sf/soad109", "Published: 28 August 2023 Article history ▾". At the bottom of the tweet, it says "9:03 AM · Apr 13, 2024 · 92 Views".

The Altmetric Attention Score is an automatically calculated, weighted count of all of the attention a research output has received. It is based on 3 main factors:

ALTMETRIC

Volume

The score for an article rises as more people mention it. We only count one mention from each person per source, so if you tweet about the same paper more than once, Altmetric will ignore everything but the first.

Sources

Each category of mention contributes a different base amount to the final score. For example, a newspaper article contributes more than a blog post, which contributes more than a tweet.

Authors

Altmetric looks at how often the author of each mention talks about scholarly articles, whether or not there's any bias towards a particular journal or publisher, and who the audience is.

The Altmetric donut colors show you where the conversations are happening. In this example, you can see most of the conversation for this piece is occurring on X, as indicated by the blue color. The colors of the Altmetric donut each represent a different source of attention:

One of the key advantages of enhanced faceting is its ability to provide real-time results. As you tweak and adjust the facets, the search results dynamically update on the fly, giving you an updated result number.

The screenshot displays the HeinOnline search interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'All Databases' and user options like 'MyHein Profile', 'What's New', 'Help', 'Connect', and 'Account'. The search bar contains the query '"artificial intelligence" OR AI' and shows 'All Databases' as the selected database. Below the search bar, the results section indicates '1,084,243 results searching for ("artificial intelligence" OR AI) in All Databases.' The 'Sort by' dropdown is set to 'Relevance'. On the left, a 'Refine Your Search' sidebar lists various facets such as Date, Collection/Library, PathFinder Subjects, Section Type, Location, Title, Organization, Person, and Availability. The main results area shows a single result: '1. Legal Challenges to Artificial Intelligence (between Reality and Hope) [article]'. The article details include the journal 'Journal of Legal, Ethical and Regulatory Issues', volume 25, special issue 4 (2022), pages 1-9, and author 'Al-dweri, Khalid Mohamad'. It also lists 'PathFinder Subjects: Artificial Intelligence; Civil Rights, Generally'. A detailed abstract is visible, starting with 'Because Artificial Intelligence (AI) technologies can be used in everyday life...'. On the right side of the result, there are icons for document, download, email, and bookmark, along with the text 'Accessed 4 Times'. A chat icon is visible in the bottom right corner of the interface.

NEW & IMPROVED LANDING PAGE

With the new design, all existing functionalities will remain the same, but the design and layout of the page will be modernized to have a contemporary look and intuitive user experience.

What's new:

- Filter your subscribed databases by subject, database type, or publisher (e.g. ABA, SAGE, Edward Elgar, etc.)
- Search your subscribed databases by keyword or term
- Design updates to meet accessibility standards
- Easily view new & popular databases
- Streamlined navigation and access to scholarly resources
- Updated navigation bar to locate new content/features

NEW & IMPROVED LANDING PAGE

Below the search bar is a navigation bar with four input fields: "All Subjects", "All Database Types", "All Vendors / Providers", and "Search for Databases". To the right of the "Search for Databases" field is a "Search" button.

The main content area shows "737 Databases found". Below this is a navigation bar with buttons for "ALL", "A", "B", "C", "D", "E", "F", "G", "H", "I", "J", "K", "L", "M", "N", "O", "P", "Q", "R", "S", "T", "U", "V", "W", "X", "Y", "Z". The "ALL" button is highlighted.

Under the "A" filter, the first result is "ABA Law Library Collection Periodicals" with a "New" badge. The description reads: "A digital collection of all current and historical periodicals from the American Bar Association that cover all areas of American law. Includes 44 titles previously only available to ABA section members. Show More".

The second result is "ABA Law Library Collection Periodicals: Package I". The description reads: "A digital collection of the top 10 most popular current and historical periodicals from the American Bar Association, dating from inception to current. Show More".

The third result is "ABA Law Library Collection Periodicals: Package II". The description reads: "A digital collection of the top 20 most popular current and historical periodicals from the American Bar Association, dating from inception to current. Show More".

The fourth result is "Acts of the Parliament of Canada (Annual Statutes)". The description reads: "Access all historical and current Acts of the Parliaments of Canada in an online, fully searchable format. Show More".

The fifth result is "Acts of the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia". The description reads: "Access all historical and current Acts of the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia in an online, fully searchable format. Show More".

On the right side of the page, there is a "Popular Databases" section. It lists four databases with brief descriptions and "Show More" links:

- Law Journal Library: "Our signature collection of more than 3,200 multidisciplinary scholarly journals. Coverage for all journals is from inception through the most currently published issues allowed based on publisher contracts. Show More"
- U.S. State Commitments with Foreign Governments: "This database contains commitments entered into by individual U.S. states with foreign nations on topics ranging from archaeology to human rights to transportation, many of which have never before been published. Show More"
- Voting Rights & Election Law: "A collection of historical and current content devoted to the electoral process: how elections are conducted, the strategy and controversies of political campaigns, how votes are counted, and who is allowed to vote.... Show More"
- World Trials Library: "Trial transcripts and other critical court documents, as well as trial-related resources that analyze and debate the decisions of famous trials. Also includes biographies of many of history's greatest trial lawyers.... Show More"

Note: All of the images displayed above in beta version are intended for illustrative purposes and may not accurately represent the final appearance of the product once it goes live. Design, layout, and other visual elements are subject to change as we continue to refine and improve the user experience based on feedback and testing.

NEW SCHOLARLY IMPACT RANKINGS

The following features are under consideration:

- Global Ranking & ABA Law School Rankings
- Data will possibly include:
 - Most Cited Journals
 - Most Cited Articles
 - Most Cited Authors
 - Most Cited by Author by Subject
 - Most Cited Institution by Subject
 - Most Recently Accessed Authors (Past 12 months)
- ScholarRank ranking but with the ability to toggle to h-index
- Data updated monthly
- Annual publishing of the top authors – looking at only content published in the past 5 years
- Author profile audits finalized at the end of each summer
