

Session Laws Library and State Statutes: A Historical Archive

About the Session Laws Library - All States in the Session Laws Library are Available from Inception to Current

First released in 2007, HeinOnline's Digital Session Laws Library contains exact replications of the official bound session laws of all 50 states, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. Updated monthly, this is an ever-expanding database. It is the only complete Online source of laws from all 50 states, beginning with territorial, colonial, and early statehood laws and continuing through to today.

The database includes the D.C. Register and the Session Laws of the U.S. Federal Government, and features the entire back file of the Acts of Parliament of Canada and Acts of Parliament of Australia.

HeinOnline's Session Laws Library is updated on a monthly basis. As new session laws are printed, they will be included in HeinOnline within 60 days of publication.

New Enhancements to the Session Laws Library

Thanks to feedback from a customer survey, we have enhanced our Session Laws Library by indexing all 50 states to the chapter or act level from 2000 to date. In 2017, we announced an amended tactic: states would be indexed back to inception one at a time, beginning with the most accessed states.
