All journals in HeinOnline date back to inception and most journals are available through the current issue or volume. More than 3,100 periodicals and 43 million pages of academic articles are available, and the incredible variety and depth of coverage provide a platform for thorough research.

Civil Rights and Social Justice

This database brings together a diverse offering of publications covering civil rights in the United States as their legal protections and definitions are expanded to cover more and more Americans.

COVID-19: Pandemics Past and Present

This database contains publications on the various ways COVID-19 has impacted every aspect of life, from testing issues in the medical field to unemployment and economic impact. This database, much like our understanding of COVID-19, will continue to evolve as new content is published and integrated with regular updates. Importantly, this collection also features subcollections dedicated to Past Pandemics, and Vaccinations.

Criminal Justice & Criminology

This collection offers an historical overview of how criminal justice has changed in American and English law and the effect criminology has had in facilitating those changes. It collects government documents as well as rare or hard to find pamphlets, memoirs, and books written by ordinary law enforcement officers and not-so-famous criminals.

Gun Regulation and Legislation in America

Brings together essential periodicals, compiled legislative histories, CRS reports, Congressional hearings, United States Supreme Court briefs, monographs, and other related materials on the difficult and controversial topic of regulating firearms in the United States.

Law Academy Project

Discover the history of legal education in America through the works of the Law Academy, one of the earliest educational institutions in the United States for law-related education, established in 1821 in Philadelphia, PA. This database gathers the Academy's pamphlets and pairs them with biographical highlights of the author and a summary of its contents.

Legal Classics

This database contains thousands of works from some of the greatest legal minds in history including Joseph Story, Jeremy Bentham, William Blackstone, William Holdsworth, Henry Maine, Frederick William Maitland, Frederick Pollock, Benjamin N. Cardozo, and many more! In addition to many classic treatises, this collection also includes rare items that are found in only a handful of libraries around the world.

Legal Dictionaries

This impressive collection of legal dictionaries is composed of more than 300 titles from various countries, on multiple topics. Included in this database are key titles such as the Compendius Dictionary of the English Language and several concise Law Dictionaries. Users can easily browse content by title or country.

LGBTQ+ Rights

A collection of materials relating to the gay rights movement in America, including an interactive timeline, as well as subject-coded court cases, scholarly articles, books, pamphlets, reports, and more.

Military and Government

Thousands of diverse publications related to the history, glory, might, and daily nitty-gritty of administering America's fighting forces.

Military Legal Resources (U.S. Army JAG School)w

Created in collaboration with the prestigious William Winthrop Memorial Library of the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's (JAG) School, this exclusive collection features hundreds of hard-to-find titles relating to the JAG Corps.

A must-have for your undergraduate program.

"I have to say, no one is more surprised than I am at the amount of use HeinOnline gets here at Augsburg. When you first contacted me a few years ago, I was reluctant to even set up a trial because we don't have a law school or even a paralegal program. When you offered to do a 6-month trial, in all honesty, I thought "sure, we'll try it for 6 months and then cancel when no one uses it." Boy, was I wrong! Every month I look at our usage stats and am pleasantly surprised to see how many articles were downloaded. We calculate cost per use based on # of downloads for all of our full-text resources (in the case of HeinOnline that translates to articles), and HeinOnline is consistently among our 10 lowest CPU resources."
