12. U.S. Presidential Impeachment Library - NEW!

To enhance its collection of presidential material, HeinOnline is pleased to introduce the U.S. Presidential Impeachment Library. Organized around the four affected presidents, this collection brings together a variety of documents both contemporaneous and asynchronous to each president’s impeachment, presenting both a snapshot of the political climate as each played out and the long view history has taken of past proceedings.

Congressional research service reports round out a general discussion of presidential impeachment, and a curated list of scholarly articles, external links, and a bibliography provide avenues for further research on this topic. We are especially pleased to include the ever-growing resource Whistleblower Complaint on Ukraine, compiled by Kelly Smith at UC San Diego, which brings together official documents related to the whistleblower complaint and impeachment inquiry of Donald Trump. This library will continue to grow as we add new material, particularly as it becomes available for the current investigation into Donald Trump.
13. Reports of U.S. Presidential Commissions and Other Advisory Bodies: A Bibliographic Listing

Named to the 2018 list of best historical materials

Reports of U.S. Presidential Commissions and Other Advisory Bodies: A Bibliographic Listing by Louis W. Bookheim is a unique resource containing the most current and comprehensive listing of publications created by presidential advisory bodies. United States presidents have historically created such advisory groups—also called committees, commissions, boards, blue ribbon panels, or task forces—to advise them on particular problems or issues. In the past, these commissions have explained catastrophes such as the Gulf oil spill, Challenger Space Shuttle accident, Pearl Harbor, the AIDS epidemic, and more.

This collection will aid researchers interested in United States history, political science, and law. Both the print and online versions are indexed by commission/advisory body name, report title, report subject, and presidential administration. Whenever possible, links to the full text of reports are provided. Citations to published government documents and OCLC numbers are provided for publications when applicable.

More than 1,700 full-text reports are available, including:

- Commission to Investigate and Report the Facts Relating to the Attack made by Japanese Armed Forces upon Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7, 1941 (Roberts Commission)
- President's Committee on Civil Rights
- President's Commission on the Status of Women
- President's Commission on the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy (Warren Commission)
- President's Special Review Board (Iran Contra, Tower Commission)
- Commission on the Intelligence Capabilities of the United States Regarding Weapons of Mass Destruction (Iraq Intelligence Commission)
- National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States (9/11 Commission)
- National Commission on the BP Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill and Offshore Drilling

14. Legal Classics

The Legal Classics database offers more than 15,900 works from some of the greatest legal minds in history, including Joseph Story, Jeremy Bentham, William Blackstone, William Holdsworth, Henry Maine, Frederick William Maitland, Frederick Pollock, Louis Brandeis, Benjamin N. Cardozo, Edwardo Coke and many more!

In addition to many classics, this database includes rare items that are found in only a handful of libraries around the world. The database focuses on constitutional law, comparative law, political science, and other classics topics and includes works dating back to the 1500s.

Notable Titles:

- Joseph Story's Commentaries on the Constitution of the United States from 1833
- Oliver Wendell Holmes' Common Law from 1881
- Benjamin Cardozo's Growth of Law from 1924
- E.H. Scott's classic work Federal and Other Constitutional Papers from 1898

18. GAO Reports and Comptroller General Decisions - NEW!

HeinOnline's GAO Reports and Comptroller General Decisions database contains reports on audits, surveys, investigations, and evaluations of federal programs conducted by the United States Government Accountability Office (GAO). All published reports, testimonies, correspondence, and special publications are included (documents that are restricted or classified are not). GAO Comptroller General Decisions contain decisions and opinions issued by the Comptroller General in areas of federal law such as appropriations, bid protests, and federal agency rulemaking.

The Government Publishing Office (GPO) has a partnership agreement with the GAO to provide permanent public access to these documents on the GAO website, but HeinOnline's metadata indexing, plus its fully searchable, user-friendly interface, make it simple to browse and search this content.

"As a small, undergraduate institution, we have a specific need for a broad-based research database that crosses disciplinary lines to provide the greatest research value to our students. HeinOnline fulfills a niche not provided by other online databases at a cost per student below other research databases. HeinOnline, paired with FastCase, provides unmatched coverage appropriate for our undergraduate law courses. In addition, its coverage of history, political science, gender studies, and environmental issues serves multiple departments across campus and provides extensive resources appropriate for courses ranging from freshman composition to senior seminars. We are particularly happy with its American Indian Law Collection, which provides particular focus to an underserved community. The representatives at HeinOnline are responsive, cheerful, and fantastic to work with."

20. History of Supreme Court Nominations

The full text of Supreme Court of the U.S. Hearings and Reports on Successful and Unsuccessful Nominations of Supreme Court Justices by the Senate Judiciary Committee is the focal point of this library. It features full-text searching, beginning with three volumes devoted to the controversial confirmation of Louis Brandeis, the first nominee subject to public hearings. This ongoing series is considered to be the definitive documentary history of the nominations and confirmation process of both successful and unsuccessful nominations.

The Browse by Justice option allows the user to link directly to relevant content, articles, and bibliography as applicable to each justice! For classic works where a single chapter discusses a justice, HeinOnline directs users to the exact place in the book where the justice is discussed.

Featured Justices include:

- Brett Kavanaugh
- Neil Gorsuch
- Merrick Garland
- Elena Kagan
- Sonia Sotomayor
- Samuel Alito, Jr.
- John G. Roberts, Jr.
- Stephen Breyer

- Thurgood Marshall
- Potter Stewart
- Harlan Fiske Stone
- Louis D. Brandeis

21. U.S. Federal Legislative History

More than 2,500 titles

The U.S. Federal Legislative History Library contains two primary sections. The first section, the U.S. Federal Legislative History Title Collection, contains nearly 2,500 comprehensive federal legislative histories published by the U.S. GPO and private publishers. These titles can be browsed by publication title, public law number or the popular name of the public law. From the title listing, researchers can quickly link to the public law in the U.S. Statutes at Large, or link to the entry within the sources of Compiled Legislative Histories database.

The second section offers a unique finding aid — the Sources of Compiled Legislative Histories Database — based on Nancy Johnson’s award-winning work, Sources of Compiled Legislative Histories: A Bibliography of Government Documents, Periodical Articles and Books, which identifies sources for research on select public laws.

Notable Titles:

- Civil Rights Act of 1964, Public Law 88-352
- Northern American Free Trade Agreement, NAFTA, Public Law 103-182
- Administrative Procedure Act, Public Law 79-404
- Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Public Law 101-336
- Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996, Public Law 104-132
- Clean Air Amendments Act of 1970, Public Law 91-604
- Export Trading Company Act of 1982 Including the Foreign Trade Antitrust Improvement Act, Public 97-290
- Federal Identity Theft Law, Public Law 108-159
- Immigration Act of 1990, Public Law 101-649

"Unlike collections available on Westlaw and Proquest Congressional, most legislative histories I find on HeinOnline are actual treatises compiled by experts familiar with the legislation. This means that beyond the specific bill that becomes law, they include previous related bills and congressional reports and hearings related thereto. In contrast, I find that your competition seems to provide material that relates only to the final bill that becomes law. One cannot overstate the importance of this distinction for complete and thorough analysis of Congressional policy."

22. U.S. Statutes at Large

A complete archive of the official source for the laws and resolutions passed by Congress

The United States Statutes at Large is the official source for the laws and resolutions passed by Congress. Every law, public and private, ever enacted by Congress is published in the Statutes at Large in order of the date of its passage. Until 1948 all treaties and international agreements approved by the Senate were also published in the set. In addition, Statutes at Large includes the text of the Declaration of Independence, Articles of Confederation, the Constitution, amendments to the Constitution, Indian treaties, international treaties, and presidential proclamations. Complete coverage of the Statutes at Large, from 1789 on, can be found in the database.

Browse U.S. Statutes at Large by volume number, by public law number, or by the popular name of a public law, which further enhances the online value over the paper volumes. It’s also easy to insert a U.S. Statutes at Large citation and jump right to the page.

Notable Titles:
- U.S. Statutes at Large (1789-2011)
- Revised Statutes of the United States, 1st Edition (1875)
- Revised Statutes of the United States, 2nd Edition (1878)
- Laws Relating to Veteran's Administration
- Federal Reclamation Laws Annotated
- Compilation of Laws Enforced by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration and Related Statutes

"Boy! We are loving HeinOnline!! This has to be the ultimate Gov Docs database. Thank you so much for setting up the trial for us!"

- Miller’s Treaties and Other International Acts of the United States of America
- Kappler’s Indian Affairs, Law and Treaties
24. U.S. Code

Comprehensive coverage of the U.S. Code from inception to date

The United States Code (U.S.C.) is a compilation and codification by subject matter of the general and permanent federal laws of the United States based on what is printed in the Statutes at Large. HeinOnline's coverage is from inception (1925-1926) to current.

This database also includes the Early Federal Laws collection, which represents the most complete collection of federal statute compilations available prior to the United States Code in 1926. It includes the first compilation by Richard Folwell (1795-1814), the Bioren and Duan editions (1815), Thomas Herty Digest (1800), and William Graydon's Abridgment (1803), among others. This archive, together with the United States Code, provides a complete history of U.S. federal laws.

25. Slavery in America and the World

Named to RUSA's annual list of best historical materials

This HeinOnline collection brings together a multitude of essential legal materials on slavery in the United States and the English-speaking world. This includes every statute passed by every colony and state on slavery, every federal statute dealing with slavery, and all reported state and federal cases on slavery. Our case coverage extends into the 20th century because long after slavery ended courts were still resolving issues emanating from slavery. To give one example, as late as 1901 Chief Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr. of the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court had to decide if a man, both of whose parents had been slaves, could be the legitimate heir of his father, because under southern law, slaves could never be legally married. The library has hundreds of pamphlets and books written about slavery—defending it, attacking it or simply analyzing it, including an expansive slavery collection from Buffalo Erie County Public Library. The cooperation of this institution was central to developing this collection. We have also gathered every English-language legal commentary on slavery published before 1920, which includes many essays and articles in obscure, hard-to-find journals in the United States and elsewhere. We have provided more than a thousand pamphlets and books on slavery from the 19th century. We have also included many modern histories of slavery. Within this library is a section containing all modern law review articles on the subject. This library will continue to grow, not only from new scholarship but also from historical material that we continue to locate and add to the collection.

26. History of International Law

Featuring an extensive collection of international law publications

This database contains more than 2,200 titles and more than 1.4 million pages dating back to 1690 on subjects such as: Hague Conferences and Conventions, International Arbitration, Law of the Sea, the Nuremberg Trials, War & Peace, and much more.

Included are classic books from famous authors such as Hans Kelsen, Samuel Pufendorf and James Brown Scott, significant serials such as the International Law Studies Series [U.S. Naval War College], International Conciliation, and Studies in Transnational Legal Policy, and links to scholarly articles that discuss the history of international law.

The History of International Law Collection allows researchers to browse or search by the subject areas listed above, as well as by document type: Scholarly Articles, Serials, and Bibliography of Other Works. Researchers can also browse a complete list of titles by the publication name, author or date.

Notable Titles:

- Decisions of the Federal Maritime Commission
- Judicial Settlement of International Disputes
- International Law Studies Series. US Naval War College
- International Conciliation
- Studies in Transnational Legal Policy
- Human Rights, the Helsinki Accords, and the United States: Selected Executive and Congressional Documents

27. Pentagon Papers

28. Brennan Center for Justice Publications

The Brennan Center for Justice at NYU School of Law is a nonpartisan law and policy institute that seeks to improve the systems of democracy and justice in the United States. The Center’s work focuses on a wide range of issues, such as voting rights, campaign finance reform, racial justice in criminal law, and Constitutional protection in the fight against terrorism. The Center considers itself to be a think tank, public interest law firm, advocacy group and communications hub. Its law and policy scholarship addresses many issues, is largely written by attorneys, and is extensively peer-reviewed by scholars and legal practitioners. This database includes more than 290 titles and more than 14,400 pages of material.

Notable Titles:

- Crime in 2015: A Preliminary Analysis by Matthew Friedman, Nicole Fortier, and James Cullen
- Legal Change: Lessons from America’s Social Movements edited by Jennifer Weiss-Wolf and Jeanine Plant-Chirlin
- Secret Spending in the States by Chisun Lee, Katherine Valde, Benjamin T. Brickner, and Douglas Keith
- Judicial Selection for the 21st Century by John F. Kowal
- Election Integrity: A Pro-Voter Agenda by Myrna Pérez
- And more!

29. Case Law Powered by Fastcase

HeinOnline has partnered with Fastcase, a leading next-generation legal research service that features powerful “best-case-first” tools that make research faster than ever. This partnership offers HeinOnline subscribers access to a wide array of case law at the federal and state levels and enables HeinOnline users to access the full text of cases through their HeinOnline subscription without the hassle of using multiple research databases. HeinOnline’s U.S. Supreme Court Library includes the U.S. Reports, which contain the officially-published opinions of the U.S. Supreme Court, and are available from inception to current.

Fastcase Basic

Fastcase Basic is included free of charge with all HeinOnline Academic and offers the ability to access case law via inline hyperlinks or by entering a case citation from the Fastcase tab on the HeinOnline Welcome Page or inside any HeinOnline database. Like HeinOnline’s “Citations on a Page” feature, case citations referenced in the text of any document in HeinOnline will link to the case in Fastcase. Links will be highlighted in blue, and clicking on the link will pull in the full text from Fastcase.

Features:

- Locate cases by citation
- Save cases to your MyHein account
- ScholarCheck lists articles which cite each case
- Parallel citations
- Case-to-case and case-to-article linking
- Negative treatment indicator
- Download/print to PDF

“Hein is one of my longtime favorite companies. Y’all have a great product and I’ve never (NEVER!) had a bad customer service experience with Hein. Everyone I’ve ever asked/talked to/whined at has been knowledgeable and kind. And this has been the case for over 20 years. I don’t dread getting in touch with y’all, even if my question/situation is weird. Thank you from the bottom of my withered little heart.”

Rebekah Maxwell | Associate Director of Library Operations | University of South Carolina
Our library is excited to provide our patrons with access to HeinOnline Academic for a number of reasons:

1. Outstanding collection of law and law-related journals
2. Excellent coverage of U.S. congressional content, which allowed us to cancel several expensive subscriptions (saving thousands of dollars per year)
3. Exceptional coverage of federal law and regulations
4. Access to specialized collections (e.g. Religion and the Law, Women and the Law) which are of interest to a growing number of researchers on our campus
5. Last, but not least - outstanding communication with HeinOnline representatives during all phases of acquisition, from initial trial through online and face-to-face demonstrations, license negotiation and contract-signing

This is an outstanding resource which we anticipate will get great use from our paralegal, public affairs, and political science researchers, but also such from a wide variety of users from a wide variety of academic departments on our campus.
