TITLE OF INTEREST

Reports of the Immigration Commission

41 volumes of thorough investigation on immigration

This set represents a classical study performed by the Immigration Commission. The majority of volumes represent an exhaustive examination of their respective topics, containing important legal and statistical data. Of primary importance is this set's digest of court decisions on immigration cases arising under statutes and treaties relating to exclusion and deprivation, its review of State immigration and alien law, plus a review of federal legislation.

As a historical examination of U.S. Immigration from a legal, political, and social viewpoint, this work explains the background upon which our present immigration laws and policies are based.
