NEW GAO Reports

HeinOnline’s GAO Reports database contains reports on audits, surveys, investigations, and evaluations of federal programs conducted by the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO). All published reports, testimonies, correspondence, and special publications are included (with the exception of restricted or classified documents). For the user’s convenience, HeinOnline has now compiled GAO Reports relevant to immigration within its Immigration Law & Policy database.

About the GAO
Headed by the Comptroller General of the U.S., the GAO is a legislative branch agency which provides auditing, evaluation, and investigative services for the U.S. Congress. The GAO produces reports and written correspondence, testimonies and statements for the record, briefings for congressional staff members, and more.

Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) Precedent Decisions
Includes the most up-to-date opinions and decisions of the U.S. Department of Justice concerning U.S. immigration policy and practice

BIA Precedent Decisions is a working index to the Administrative Decisions Under Immigration and Nationality Laws, containing decisions which have been selected and designated as precedents in accordance with Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations section 3.1(g) and 103.3(c). It includes all opinions and orders of the Attorney General, Board of Immigration Appeals and the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization Service.

The index also gives access to Hein's Interim Decision Service to Administrative Decisions under Immigration and Nationality Laws, giving you the most up-to-date opinions and decisions of the BIA.

TITLE OF INTEREST

Reports of the Immigration Commission

41 volumes of thorough investigation on immigration

This set represents a classical study performed by the Immigration Commission. The majority of volumes represent an exhaustive examination of their respective topics, containing important legal and statistical data. Of primary importance is this set's digest of court decisions on immigration cases arising under statutes and treaties relating to exclusion and deprivation, its review of State immigration and alien law, plus a review of federal legislation. As a historical examination of U.S. Immigration from a legal, political, and social viewpoint, this work explains the background upon which our present immigration laws and policies are based.
