About the Law Library of Congress

The Library of Congress is the largest library in the world. It is also the main research arm of the U.S. Congress and the home of the U.S. Copyright Office. The Law Library of Congress is the world's largest collection of law books and other legal resources from every country in the world, with more than 2.9 million items. It is staffed by trained foreign and U.S. legal specialists and law librarians.

About the Law Library of Congress Reports

Developed in collaboration with the Law Library of Congress, HeinOnline's Law Library of Congress Reports is an exclusive database boasting a collection of more than 3,500 meticulously crafted reports on foreign, comparative, and international law. These reports have been compiled in response to requests from Members of Congress, Congressional staff and committees, the federal courts, executive branch agencies, and other institutions, making this collection an indispensable tool for legal researchers.

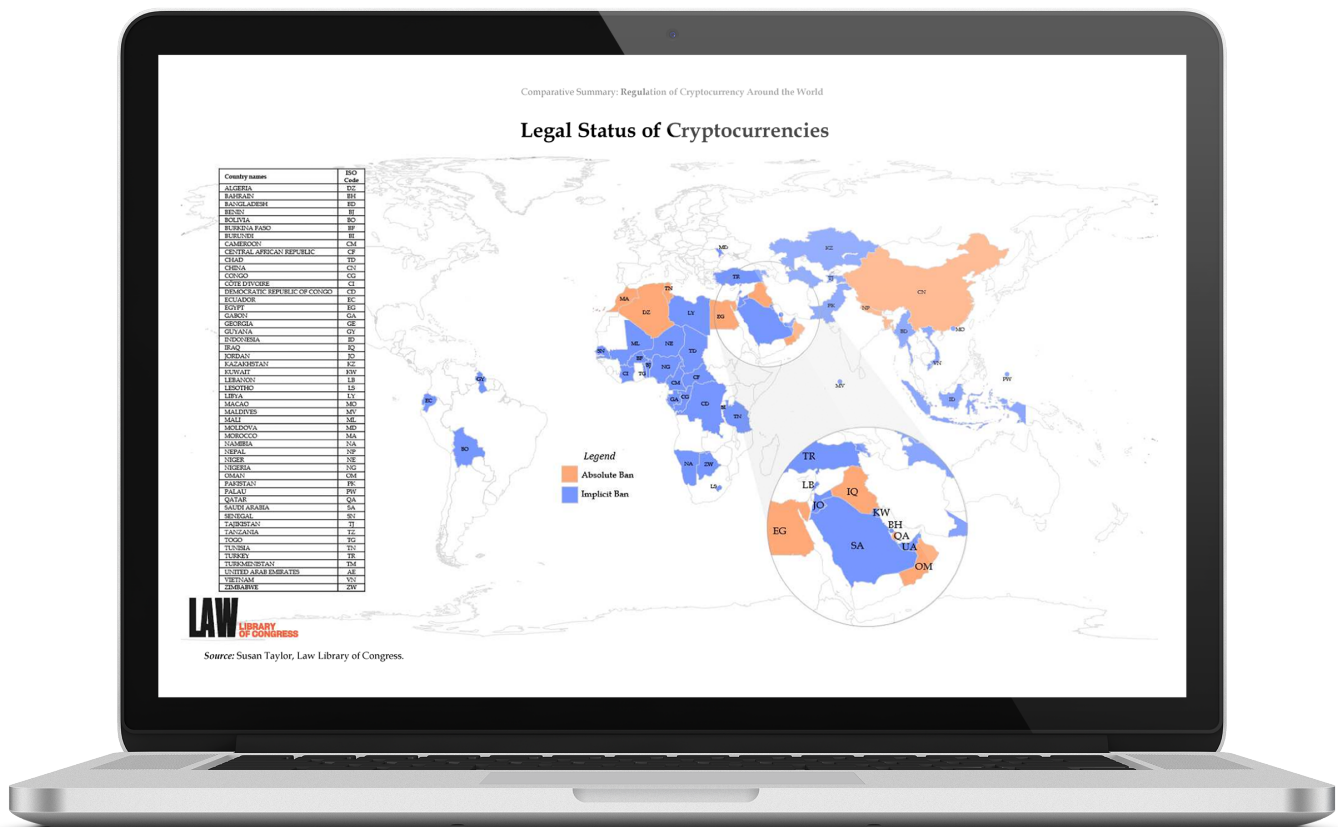

The Law Reports cover a vast range of subject areas relevant around the world, including:

- Abortion
- Adoption
- Anti-discrimination
- Asylum law
- Bribery
- Copyright systems
- Divorce
- Environmental law
- Extradition
- Gun control
- Immigration and citizenship
- Jury systems
- Labor law
- Marijuana and narcotics
- National security
- Taxation
- Voting
- Wildlife and poaching
- Women's rights
- And many more!

Reports in this collection span from early 20th century to present day, and include titles on wide-ranging topics, including:
