Table of Contents

Editor's Preface
Ashley Krenelka Chase xi

Author Biographies xiii

Introduction: Young Dogs and Old Tricks
Jonathan Harris & Michael Harris xxi

Section I:
Why Lead? The Need for Millennial Leadership in Libraries

Leadership: Demanding but Worth It
Amanda Hurley 3

The Challenge to Librarians Everywhere 5
How Should Librarians Lead? 6
Reflect 14
Conclusion 16

Why This "Latchkey Kid" Needs Millennial Leaders
Eric. W. Young 19

Introduction 19
X = ? 20
Y = ? 23
X + Y ≈ Friction 25
Why X + Y ≈ Success 27
Personal Example of X + Y = Success 28
Conclusion 34

A Baby Boomer's View on Millennial Leaders in Libraries
Filippa Anzalone 35

Introduction 35
Taming Each Other 36
Baby Boomers 38
Millennials 40
Kiefer's Story 43
Ruah's Story 44
Mentoring through Our Differences 47

Passing the Tablet, Trust and Torch: Transitioning to Millennial Leadership
Kristopher Turner 49

"Kids These Days": Generational Characteristics and Previous Transitions 50
Changes Are Afoot: Millennial Leadership and Other Age Groups 55
As the Torch Is Passed: Transitional Expectations and How to Make It Successful 61
Conclusion: Library Leadership in the Millennial Age 66

Synergizing Millennials' Activism and Librarians' Radicalism to Create Libraries of the Future
Taryn Marks 69

Introduction 69
The Millennial Generation: Activism, Social Justice, and Community 70
The Contrary Cultures of the Library 74
The Synergy of Millennials and Radical Librarians 78
Conclusion 87

Section II: Workplace Relationships: Bridging the Gap between Generations

Millennials Diverge: A Contrast of Newer Millennials and Veterans in Millennial Leadership
Jonathan Kirsch & Olivia White 91

Introduction 91
Generational Differences: Grounding the Debate 91
Millennial Leaders in Libraries: Which Millennials? 92
Millennial Leadership and the Use of Technology 93
Millennial Leadership and Communication Styles 97
Leadership and Immersive Work Beyond the Traditional Library 102
Mentorship's Role in Leadership and Immersive Work Beyond the Traditional Library 105
Conclusion: A Diversity of Millennials 107

Just Do Your Job. I'm Not Holding Your Hand: Generation X Women as Leaders Working with Millennials
Michelle Millet & Jaleh Fazelian 109

Introduction 109
Literature Review 110
Expectations of Women as Leaders 115
Managing Millennials and Working Together: A Case Study of Sorts 117
Some Advice for Millennials (Especially if You Work for a Gen Xer) 119
Conclusions 122

The Squeeze: Effect of Millennial Leadership on Gen X Librarians
Kate Irwin-Smiler 125

Introduction 125
Background 132
Analysis 136
Concerns 141
Conclusion 143

Trustworthiness and the Millennial Leader
Michelle Cosby 147

Introduction 147
Trust and the Millennial Leader 148

What Exactly Are Trust and Trustworthiness? 150
Suggestions for Building Trust..... 152
Repairing Trust and Using Forgiveness to Maintain a Healthy Work Environment..... 155
Using Trust in Organization to Build Positive Relationships and Increase Retention with Millennial Library Leaders..... 157
Conclusion..... 162

The Hero Generations: How a Gen Xer Can Learn from Our Grandparents and Help Millennial Librarians Change the World
Stacy F. Posillico..... 165

Strauss and Howe's Generational Theories..... 168
The Accomplishments of G.I. Generation Library Leaders and the Debts They Left Behind 176
How Millennials Have Changed U.S. Libraries and How They Will Shape Their Future for Decades to Come..... 186
How Gen Xers Can Embrace, and in Some Ways Deny, Their Generation's Characteristics and Help Millennials Lead 199
Conclusion..... 205

Section III:
Millennial Leadership Skills, Styles, Strategies, and Stories

Leadership through Academic Library Displays and Marketing
Virginia Alexander Cononie..... 211

Creativity, Library Displays, and Events 211
Leadership through Creativity..... 213
Leadership through Planning..... 216
Planning Assessment through Passive and Supportive Interaction..... 217
Leading through Engaging Library Displays and Events..... 219
Leadership through Library Events..... 225
Finding Flow, Ideas, and Leadership Roles 227
General Obstacles to Overcome..... 228

Forging Community around Library Leadership: Lessons from Blogland
Megan Hartline 231

Millennial Library Leaders in a Time of Change..... 231
Library Lost & Found 232
Learning Leadership Online..... 233
Library Lost & Found Case Studies..... 236
Expanding Community Beyond the Blog 240
Social Media Best Practices 241
Self-Identifying as a Library Leader 243
Blogging Benefits..... 244
The Value of Community..... 245
Lessons from a Library Blog..... 247

Distractedly Engaged or Engagedly Distracted: How Constant Collaboration Breeds Innovation in Millennial Librarians
Katie Hanschke & Patrick Parsons 249

What Makes Millennials Great Collaborators 249
Millennials in the Workplace 253
Collaboration Breeds Innovation in Libraries 259
Conclusion 267

Mind the Gap: Communicating Across the Generations
Susan Dennison 269

Just Who Are These Millennials? 270
Baby Boomers and Generation Xers 271
It's All about Communications 273
Communicating in a Sped-Up World 274
Communications and Technology 276
The Outside World 276
The Communications Plan 277
Communicating Across the Gap—A Wrap-Up 279
Conclusion 281

Not Here to Make Friends: The Millennial Leader in the Adversarial Workplace
Dolly M. Knight 283

What Is a Hostile Work Environment? 287
Adversarial Environments in Libraries 290
Working in the Modern Office 293
Conclusions 297

Section IV:
Get Them in the Door: Bringing Millennial Leadership into the Library (or Not)

Recruiting and Leveraging Millennial Leaders
Ashley Krenelka Chase 303

Recruiting Millennial Leaders 304
Retaining and Leveraging Millennial Leaders 306
Conclusion 311

The Millennial Job Market: Maintaining Confidence in the Face of Rejection
Eliza Fink 313

Introduction 313
The Changing Landscape of the Labor Market 316
Confidence in the Workplace 320
What Is There to Be Done? 323
Conclusion 325

An Expanding Vision of Librarianship
Trey Gordner 327

Introduction 327
Why Does It Matter? The Case for Hiring Millennial Leaders 328
Who Are We Looking For? Characteristics of Millennial Leaders 331
Where Are They Now? Seeking out Millennial Leaders 335
How Do We Convince Them? Pitching the Library 336
Conclusion 340

Section V: Plotting, Planning, Persevering: Making the Most of a Millennial Leader's Career

Taking Charge of Your Own Professional Development and Preparing to Lead as a Millennial Librarian
Ellen Frentzen 345

What Is Professional Development? 347
In the Office 349
Out of the Office 354
Loose Lips Sink (Career) Ships 355
You Are Going to Get Frustrated 356

Do It Yourself: Self-Motivation and Creating Your Own Leadership Opportunities for Professional Growth
Jordan A. Jefferson & Cate Kellett 359

Introduction 359
The State of the Profession 360
Millennial Attitudes Towards Jobs/Leadership 365
Motivation in the Face of Workplace Inertia 370
Becoming a Leader 373
Conclusion 377

Managing Career Success: The Philosophy of a Millennial Leader's Role
Jamie J. Baker 379

Introduction 379
Defining the Generations 379
Nontraditional Performance Measures: Data-Driven Decision Making 384
Modern Leadership and Management 388
Leading with a Philosophy 391
Conclusion 401

Collaboration Is the New Leadership: When to Lean In and When to Lean Back
Lindsay Cronk 403

Introduction 403
Leadership Trends in Generational Context 405
Collaborative Leadership—Anecdotes and Discussion 410
Conclusion 418

Leading When You're Not in Charge: Team-Based Leadership in a Changing Organizational Culture
Lauren Chenevert Kewley 421

Change and Organizational Culture 421
Action Learning and Peer Coaching 427
Task-Based Leadership Opportunities 429
Organizational Conflict and Radical Leadership 434
Conclusion 435

Strategic Professional Development and Mentoring Millennials in the Library: Toward Best Practices
Sarah E. Fancher 437

The Future of Work Culture 438
Mentoring 440
Strategic Employee Development 443
Strategic Professional Development for Institutional Needs 445
Strategic Professional Development for Individual Careers 447
Toward Best Practices 451