

Millennial Leadership in Law Schools: Essays on Disruption, Innovation, and the Future

Edited by

Ashley Krenelka Chase

*Associate Director, Dolly and Homer Hand Law Library
Coordinator for Legal Practice Technology & Instructor of Law
Stetson University College of Law*

William S. Hein & Co., Inc.
Getzville, New York
2021

Table of Contents

Editor's Preface
Ashley Krenelka Chase	xi
Author Biographies	xv

Section I: ON CULTURE

Upending the Double Life of Law Schools: Millennials in the Legal Academy
Ashley Krenelka Chase	3
Evolution of Legal Education.....	4
Millennials as Students and Employees	9
Benefits to Law Schools.....	12
Conclusion.....	15
Millennials and the Future of Racial Diversity in American Law Schools
Nyamagaga Gondwe	17
Yale Law School: Lessons from Two Diversity Reports.....	17
Schools Need to Shift to Diversity as Remedy Models for Framing Diversity Efforts.....	21
Diversity Data Hides as Much as It Shows.....	26
Law School Diversity Initiatives Should Take Stronger Action to Ensure Student Wellness	28
Millennials as Administrative Leaders	30
Conclusion.....	31
The Generation Openly Erasing Stigmas: Law Students and Lawyers with Disabilities Bring Openness and Advocacy to the Forefront
Haley Moss	33
A Primer on Disability and Mental Health in Law Schools and Law Practice ...	33
The Lack of Disability Representation in Young Lawyers and Law Schools	36
Millennials Mobilizing to Erase Disability Stigmas	42
The Future of Disability Representation in Law Schools and the Legal Profession	49
Meet Xennials: The Bridge Between Generations
Renee Nicole Allen	55
Who Are Xennials?.....	55
Xennial Innovation.....	61

Xennial Retention and Support	67
Conclusion	70
There Is Peace in the Madness: From Isolation to Well-Being in Academia and Beyond
DeShannon McDonald	71
Introduction	71
The Legal Profession: The Loneliest of Them All	75
Connecting the Challenges to the Culture	77
Positive Psychology and Well-Being	79
The Application of Well-Being in Legal Education	82
Millennial Leadership: Promoting Change in Culture, Classes, and Practice	84
Well-Being Initiatives in the Legal Community	88
Conclusion	89
Section II:
ON RELATIONSHIPS
Imposter Syndrome: Lessons for Millennial Legal Academics and Law Schools
Sara L. Ochs	93
Introduction	93
The Detrimental Impact of Imposter Syndrome on Millennial Legal Academics	96
Lessons for Millennial Law Professors	101
Lessons for Law School Administrations	103
Conclusion	108
Teaching Workshops: Encouraging Dialogue Across Generations
Laura N. Coordes	109
The Beginning	110
The Workshops	116
Why This Works	118
Conclusion	120
Innovative Disruptors: Bringing the Counter-Narrative to the Forefront
Jennah Jones & Elexus Harris	121
What Are Innovative Disruptors?	121
Impact of Student Affairs and Senior Administrators	123
Author Backgrounds	123
Law School Student Affairs	124
History of Law School Curriculum	125
Where Are We Now?	128
Where Are We Going and How Are We Going to Get There?	129
Our Institution	131
Conclusion	132

Leaving the Ladder Down: How Millennials in the Legal Education Profession Face a Similar Climb to the Historic Entry of Women into the Workforce

Jennifer Cerny 133

 Generation Status: It’s Complicated..... 133

 Unpacking Women’s Workplace Climb..... 137

 Millennials in the Mix..... 140

 Leaving the Ladder Down..... 143

Rebooting, Reimagining, and Reinventing Gen-X

Karen DeMeola..... 149

 Here’s the Story of a Pedantic, Workaholic Gen-Xer..... 149

 Mad Max 150

 The Thing about Wonder Woman..... 154

 These Are the Droids I’m Looking For..... 161

 Reframing Courtesy of Toto—We Aren’t in Kansas Anymore..... 162

Section III: ON TEACHING

From Disruption to Reconstruction: A Millennial Creating Modern Law School Pedagogy

Brittany L. Raposa..... 165

 Deconstruction: A Millennial’s Perspective on Traditional Law School Pedagogy 166

 Reconstruction: A Millennial Changing Law School Pedagogy..... 170

 Conclusion..... 175

Millennial Leadership Advanced Through Empathy Education

Sandra Williamson-Ashe 177

 Introduction..... 177

 Learning Millennials..... 177

 Empathy Development for Leaders..... 179

 The Moral Connection to Leadership..... 181

 The Culture of Legal Education 183

 Millennials Learn to Lead 184

 Conclusion..... 185

The Importance of Feedback

Michelle Zakarin 187

 Introduction..... 187

 Today’s Law Students as Learners..... 188

 The Need for Assessments 188

 Effective Feedback..... 190

 Millennials and Feedback 192

 Are Law Schools Embracing and Supporting Faculty Engagement in New Assessment and Feedback Models? 196

Millennials Are Proving Experience Is the Best Teacher

Kate Cochran, Jenna Fegreus & Brian Flaherty	199
Introduction.....	199
How We Teach 1L Students	200
Advanced Legal Research Classes	202
Legal Research Certification Program.....	203
Other Teaching Opportunities.....	203
Millennials as Legal Research Teachers.....	204
Conclusion.....	207

Section IV: ON PRACTICE

The Myth of the Digital Native and Why Millennials Are the Best Tech Educators in Law Schools

Ashley Krenelka Chase	211
The Need for Technology Education.....	212
Why Millennials?.....	217
Conclusion and the Future.....	218

Millennials and Experiential Education: Lessons on Building a Meaningful Legal Career

Catherine J. Cameron	221
-----------------------------------	-----

Print Disruption: Training Practice-Ready Graduates for a “Gig Economy”

Ashley Matthews	229
Introduction: An Anecdote.....	229
Practicing in the Legal Gig Economy.....	232
Legal Education’s Digital Revolution	233
Back to Basics: Fun Ways to Teach Print Legal Research	235
Conclusion: A Call to Action	237

Section V: ON CHANGE

But We Tried That Before: Using Creative Problem-Solving to Create Braver More Innovative Law Schools

Cas Laskowski & George Taoultides	241
Introduction.....	241
Millennials and Innovation.....	241
Crafting an Innovative Workplace	242
Why Craft an Innovative Workplace?.....	249
Conclusion.....	254

Arbitrary and Capricious? Publishing Legal Scholarship in the Twenty-First Century

Skylar Reese Croy	255
Introduction.....	255

Table of Contents

Changes	257
Conclusion.....	261
They Got Next: How Xennial (and Millennial) Law Professors Can Prepare Generation Z to “Be the Change” We Want to See in the Legal Academy
Tiffany D. Atkins	267
Introduction.....	267
Generational Theory ... Again?!	269
Breaking Down Barriers and Creating Clear Paths to the Legal Academy	274
Preparing Gen Z for the Legal Academy	278
Final Thoughts	281