MyHein: New and Improved Interface

Empowerment Through Information

Overview

When MyHein was initially launched in 2008, it was merely a bookmarking tool. Since then, this HeinOnline staple has become a multidimensional research tool for power researchers. For the first time, MyHein has received a major face-lift. All functionality has remained the same, but now MyHein is easier to use and easier on the eyes. We'll explore:

- What's Changed

What's Changed

New Interface

The screenshot displays the MyHEIN user interface. At the top left is a circular profile icon with 'LM' and the text 'Hello, Lauren!'. The top right features the 'MyHEIN' logo and a 'MyHEIN User's Guide' link. A left-hand navigation menu is highlighted with a red box, containing: Account Settings, Bookmarks, Search Queries, Search History, eTOC Alerts, Favorite Databases, Author Alerts, Author Portal, and SmartCILP Portal. The 'Bookmarks' section is also highlighted with a red box, showing a 'Folders' list: 'impeachment (1)', 'vaccination (2)', and 'wrongful convictions (4)'. Below this is an 'Items' section with buttons for 'Check All', 'Uncheck All', and 'Delete Selected Entries', an 'Options' dropdown set to 'Email', and a 'Submit' button. A 'Page limit' dropdown is set to '10'. The search results list includes two items, with the first item highlighted by a red box: '1. Impeachment [chapter]' with details on Missouri statutes and a 'Folder: impeachment' label. Below the first item are buttons for 'Download', 'Add Note', 'Delete', and 'Move', with a red arrow pointing to the 'Move' button. The second item is '2. The Individual Mandate: Implications for Public Health Law [article]' with details on a journal article and a 'Folder: vaccination' label.

The biggest changes to the interface include:

- The menu list has moved.
- Tags are now folders.
- Buttons have replaced icons.
- Entire search results are now displayed.
