European Journal of Commercial Contract Law (EJCCL) is a peer-reviewed journal published three times a year. EJCCL aims to play a major role in international and European commercial law and offers the latest factual, accessible and scientifically reliable information to legal scholars, practitioners, courts and legislators. This journal includes content on transport law, international trade law, insurance law, e-commerce, arbitration law, bills of exchange, sale of goods law, conflict of laws, and much more!

ISSN: print 1877-1467 | online 1877-1475

Journal of Trafficking and Human Exploitation (JTHE) is a double-blind peer-reviewed journal that is published twice a year. Forces of globalization enable an ever increasing market for the commodification of human beings. In an effort to combat such actions, domestic, regional and international legal systems have outlawed trafficking in persons and various forms of human exploitation. JTHE serves as a premier forum to discuss and debate the legal and policy issues involving prevention, intervention, investigations, prosecution, individual, state and corporate responsibility surrounding human trafficking.

Journal of Medical Law and Ethics (JMLE) is a peer-reviewed journal that is published three times a year. This journal publishes articles, reports, case notes and essays in the field of medical law and ethics. The aim of JMLE is to improve the way medical care is provided. This journal provides an opportunity for academics and practitioners alike to discuss the controversial areas of confidentiality and medical records, assisted conception, embryo and stem cell research, organ transplantation, professional malpractice, and much more!
