SORT SEARCH RESULTS USING SCHOLARCHECK METRICS

Users can tailor search results to meet their individual needs by sorting them by:

1. Number of times cited by articles
2. Number of times accessed (past 12-months)
3. Most-cited authors
4. Number of times cited by cases

This enables users to find the most relevant, on-point articles and cases for their research purposes, or see to what's trending in the academic research world by choosing the articles that have been accessed the most.

the diversity corner Surviving the Government Shutdown by Whitney Novak O n December 21, 2018, federal judiciary employees in the District of Kansas were left with an encouraging message from Clerk of Court Tim O'Brien as they prepared for an extended holiday weekend-the judiciary would not be immediately impacted should Congress fail to pass a continuing resolution to fund the government. "The Judiciary has historically been able to sustain paid operations through the use of our fee authority and no-year appropriations for the first two to four weeks of a government shutdown. Happy Holidays to everyone. ...At midnight on December 22, 2018, what would become the longest government shutdown in American history began after Congress failed to pass a continuing resolution.

SCHOLARRANK AND AUTHOR PROFILES

ScholarCheck is an integral part of author profile pages in HeinOnline. Metrics counted for each author include:

- The number of times an author has been cited by other articles in HeinOnline within 5 years only
- The number of times an author has been cited by other articles in HeinOnline beyond the past 5 years only
- The number of times an author has been cited by cases available in HeinOnline or via Fastcase within the past five years only
- The number of times an author has been cited by cases available in HeinOnline or via Fastcase beyond the past five years only
- The number of times an article has been accessed by other HeinOnline users within a rolling 12-month period
- ScholarRank is your overall ranking based on the calculation of the five metrics above

SCHOLARRANK TOP 50 ARTICLES

ScholarRank enhances ScholarCheck by ranking the 50 articles cited the most by articles in the Law Journal Library, by cases available through HeinOnline and Fastcase, and accessed the most times by other HeinOnline users! Using the three ScholarCheck quantifying categories, an analysis is run called ScholarRank, in which all articles in HeinOnline are gathered and ranked in each category. Then the rankings are averaged to produce a list of the 50 highest-scoring articles. This list is available in the Law Journal Library under the Most-Cited browse option.
