

Spinelli's Law Library Reference Shelf

Edited by: Dick Spinelli

A collection of works, scholarly articles and tools for librarians, faculty, law school administrators and students!

Initially conceived as a collection specifically for law librarians, Spinelli's Law Library Reference Shelf now has an increased scope for the entire legal research community. Dick Spinelli brings his more than 45 years of experience in working with librarians and law libraries to the creation and editing of this collection.

For librarians, this unique collection brings together checklists, newsletters, and cataloging tools. For legal researchers, it contains research guides, bibliographies, dictionaries, and biographies. For faculty and administrators, it houses a section on Legal Education and much more.

Oral History of Law Librarianship

Cataloging Publications

This section includes a number of cataloging publications and tools that will serve as remarkable aids for catalogers. All Library of Congress Classification Schedules are included from A to Z covering all subjects in the classification system. This allows catalogers to link from the Library of Congress Subject Heading to the classification schedules, and from the classification schedules to the tables, all in a matter of seconds! With the ability to browse or search across all subject areas in the classification system, these tools will prove to be invaluable for librarians and/or catalogers beyond just the law library.

Significant title included:

- Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications (All Published)

Memorials of Law Librarians

Includes memorials published in the Law Library Journal from 1916-2014. You can link directly to the memorial as published in the Journal.

Spirit of Law Librarianship Award

Each year, the Roy M. Mersky Spirit of Law Librarianship Award honors one law librarian or law library organization for service to the community. The award winners are presented in an easy-to-navigate chart that allows you to link directly to the winners' essays.

Scholarly Articles

This section includes links to hundreds of relevant law review articles that discuss various aspects of legal education and law librarianship. All articles have been hand-selected from HeinOnline's Law Journal Library. Using Hein's ScholarCheck, you can link to other scholarly articles that cite editors' picks. *

Serials

Includes more than three dozen titles that are of value to law libraries. Notable titles include:

Spinelli's Law Library Reference Shelf

Greenslips Bibliographic Service

The GreenSlips Bibliographic Service will allow researchers to search across the entire archive of bibliographic entries that have been distributed since 1994 via Hein's GreenSlips service. The Electronic GreenSlips database contains bibliographic information for more than 60,000 legal titles. Each entry or "slip" includes the author, title, publisher, LC numbers, series information, price and other bibliographic information. If you subscribe to the Electronic GreenSlips service, you will be able to search the database from within this library and then link directly to your account to utilize all the tools included in your full-service subscription. PLUS, subscribers to this service will get a discounted price if you choose to subscribe to Spinelli's Law Library Reference Shelf. If you do not subscribe to the Electronic GreenSlips service, you will still be able to search across the database and view the bibliographic entries, but you will not be able to utilize the premium features available with the full service. We are offering a discounted combo price if you choose to subscribe to both the Electronic GreenSlips service and Spinelli's Law Library Reference Shelf.

For more information on the Electronic GreenSlips service and its features, please request a brochure from your sales representative, contact us at marketing@wshein.com, or visit <https://www.wshein.com/electronic-greenslips/>.

About the Editor

Dick has been involved in the law library profession for more than 45 years. He spent the first 25 years with Fred B. Rothman & Co. in various positions, ultimately as Vice President. Dick joined the Hein Company as the Vice President of Sales in 1993. Initially he was primarily responsible for sales to all types of law libraries in the United States. During that time Dick visited most academic libraries in the country as well as countless public law libraries and law firm libraries, working directly with librarians on collection development and collection management matters. Since his semi-retirement at the end of 2009, Dick has been involved in consulting and product development for the Hein Company. He has been a member of AALL for more than 40 years as well as a member of numerous local Chapters during that period. Dick was inducted into the AALL Hall of Fame in 2013.
