FEATURING

CFR Title 3: Presidents

This series contains the full text of presidential proclamations, executive orders, and certain other presidential documents promulgated between 1936 and 2018.

Messages and Papers of the Presidents

A 22-volume set beginning with George Washington and concluding with Herbert Hoover. The messages of the presidents of the United States annual, veto, and special are among the most interesting, instructive, and valuable contributions to the public literature of our republic. They discuss from the loftiest standpoint nearly all the great questions of national policy and many subjects of minor interest which have engaged the attention of the people from the beginning of our history, and so constitute important and often vital links in their progressive development.

Public Papers of the Presidents

Public Papers of the Presidents begins with Herbert Hoover and concludes with Barack Obama. The papers have been compiled and published by the Office of the Federal Register's National Archives, and Records Administration since 1957 in response to a recommendation by the National Historical Publications Commission. Noting the lack of uniform compilations of messages and papers of the presidents before this time, the Commission recommended the establishment of an official series in which presidential writings, addresses, and remarks of a public nature would be made available.

Daily Compilation of Presidential Documents

The Daily Compilation of Presidential Documents is issued through the Office of the Federal Register and contains statements, messages, and other presidential material released by the White House. This compilation also includes speeches, press conferences, press releases, proclamations, executive orders, acts approved by the President, and many more documents. Also included is the predecessor title, Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents.
